

Ian D'Agata is a DWWA Regional Chair for Italy and author of Native Wine Grapes of Italy

vinum
the word for wine www.vinum.co.uk

Ian D'Agata's top 35 reds under £20: experience the diversity of Piedmont

"Quinto Chionetti is arguably the best Dolcetto producer in Piedmont"

1 Chionetti, Briccolero,
Dogliani 2011 17.75/20 (92/100)

£16.69-£17 Le Langhe, Pane e Vino, Penistone
Court Cellars, St Andrews Wine, Swig, Vinum

Rich and dense, with brooding dark plum, coffee and spicy minerals, huge structure and depth; you can almost taste the chalk. Be aware this is not the fruitier, lighter-bodied Dolcetto di Dogliani but a Dogliani – a category of wines meant to be bigger and fuller-bodied, with the ability to age. Drink 2014-2018 Alcohol 14%

Top Of the Class: Chionetti
Briccolero
Dogliani 2011

30 Forteto della Luja, Mon
Ross, Barbera d'Asti 2013 16.75 (89)

£13.49 Lancelot Wines, Le Langhe, Oeno Wine,
The Food Co, The Wine Tasting Shop, Vinum Pure, clean and long with refined aromas and flavours of red cherry, sweet spices and flowers.
Very pretty, easygoing Barbera with a noteworthy violet lift on the finish. A graceful wine. Drink 2014-2017 Alc 13.5%

287 wines to buy The world's best wine magazine December 2014 £4.40

Decanter

35 amazing Piedmont reds under £20
Fantastic buys, great new discoveries

South African Syrah
The most exciting grape in the Cape, said our tasters

Prestige Champagnes 20 brilliant wines for that special occasion – or the perfect gift

Also this month

- St-Emilion 2011 panel tasting
- Top 20 Ports from every style
- Travel: Tokaji
- Gerard Basset on cheese & wine
- Burgundy's micro-négociants